E. B. Thomas Shows Committee and Helpers Seriousness of Situation—Senator Watson Speaks

Rush county will have to raise $10,500 for the Red Cross War Relief Fund next week.

This was the information imparted to the finance committee and other Red Cross workers from the auxiliaries in the county by E. B.
Thomas, chairman, at a meeting at
headquarters last night.

Mr. Thomas reported on the meeting of the state Red Cross workers which he attended in Indianapolis last Thursday evening. He heard the report of the two Indiana men who were in Washington at the Red Cross War Council when it was determined that the United States should raise $100,000,000 for the relief and protection of United States soldiers going to war.

Indiana's share is $1,500,000 and Indianapolis alone will donate $300,- 000 of this amount. There is a recognized Red Cross chapter in eighty-five counties of the state and there are auxiliaries in the other seven counties, so that every county will be enlisted in this campaign.

Robert E. Mansfield, who attended the meeting in Indianapolis with Mr. Thomas, added a word in which he touched on the serious phase of the situation. He said the people had not yet realized that war is upon the country and that no one had really made a sacrifice on account of the war. He said that Rush county had to raise its allotment in a week and that the people were going to have to make sacrifices to do it.

Late in the evening it was reported that Senator James E. Watson was in the city and that he could probably be persuaded to speak for a few minutes regarding conditions in general and how the feeling in Washington was towards the war.
Senator Watson came and spoke briefly, dwelling on the serious phase of the situation. He talked of the terrible conditions in France, giving information which he had gained from personal conversation with General Joffre and other members of the French commission.

Senator Watson praised the gathering of men and women present for the active part they were taking.
He said it was a time when everyone should devote their time and talents to the best interests of the country and that there should be no slackers.

The question of how the finance committee should organize for the cavass was left open to be determined at a meeting later in the week.
The suggestion was made that the teams should work by voting precincts but the whole matter was left unsettled until the committee receives subscription cards and other literature in regard to the campaign.
from state headquarters. Mr.
Thomas said the subscription cards would explain methods of payment.
As he recalled it, the donations may be paid in installments, if the donor feels like he or she is unable to pay the whole sum at once. This is arranged to make it easier for those who give and for the additional rea-

Rush County Must Bear Its Share of the War Burdens

The war must be ended.
America can end it, but not by faltering, half-way exertions.
France has bled white.
England has poured out her strength.
America must supply the driving force that breaks the deadlock.
America must win the war now on European soil, or lose it later on her own.
The war is costing $60,000,000 a day.
The American National Red Cross asks $100,000,000 for our army and for the Allies. This is less than the expense of two days of war.
Rush county has to raise $10,500 next week as her share.
It will provide many much-needed hospitals and ambulance companies.
SOME may fight, but ALL can give.
"Play your part."

son that the Red Cross does not propose to spend this $100,000,000 all at once and therefore will not need it all now.

The committee in charge of the campaign allows twenty-five per cent for expenses but it is planned to use very little of the fund for that purpose here. The question of apportionment of the Rush county allotment among the twelve townships was discussed but not settled. Rush county's proportion is fifty cents per capita because there are approximately twenty thousand people in the county. Whether it would be feasible for the amount to be raised to be apportioned among the townships on a per capita basis is the question which will have to be decided. Some of the auxiliary members from out in the county said that the farmers were not aroused to the situation because they were so busy now with their crops that they had no time to give to reading or attending meetings so that they did not know the true conditions nor the seriousness of them. For that reason, doubt was expressed as to whether the out townships would be able to raise a fund on the basis of fifty cents for each resident of the township.

Mr. Thomas tried to impress on the members of the finance committee the seriousness of America's part and the burdens which have fallen to her lot. He was impressed at the Indianapolis meeting and said that members of the finance committee must know the real situation to impart it to those they meet and ask to donate.

The burden of Mr. Thomas' talk was that now is the time to give.
He said that a dollar contributed to Red Cross War Relief now was worth two or three dollars later because the Red Cross needs the money to prepare the way for the United States soldiers in France. He declared that the person is near-sighted indeed who does not see the value of Red Cross aid extended to America's allies. It is after all, a selfish matter, he said, even for the Red Cross to help them because it is only serving to make conditions better for the men from this country.

As an example of the disorganized Red Cross work on the eastern front, Mr. Thomas cited the fact that on a front a thousand miles on the eastern battlefield, there were only six thousand ambulances. That seemed like a good many ambulances, he said, but not when it is considered that here are 64,000 ambulance on the western front of 400 miles.

Mr. Thomas recalled that many

RED CROSS BENEFIT BALL IS ABANDONED

Because of Shortness of Time Due
to Factory Starting This Week
It Had to be Given Up

PRESIDENT FALK ARRIVES

The ball planned for the benefit of the Red Cross has been abandoned.
Because of the shortness of the time in which arrangements had to be made and because the Red Cross as an organization could not be behind the benefit, it had to be given up last night.

The Modern Appliance company
was busy with the building getting ready to begin business at once and the ball would have interfered with their plans. They hope to have the wheels turning by Thursday so that the ball had to be held by Wednesday night if at all. Because of this there was no time to sell tickets and complete arrangements and no organization to take the responsibility.

President E. Falk of the Modern Appliance company has arrived here for permanent residence. He said this morning that he hoped to have the factory running full tilt by next Monday, although preliminary work will be done before then. The machinery is being set in position rapidly.

Absent Voters Will Have Right to Vote by Mail in Congressional Election in This District

CLERK SUPPLIES THE BLANK

This Class of Votes May be Challenged Just the Same as Vote
Cast by Person Themselves

The new Indiana law giving absent voters the right to vote by mail will get its first test in the congressional election to be held in this district on June 26. The necessary blanks are in the hands of Clerk Moore and the election board is preparing to use this feature of the Indiana election laws.

Application for absent voter's ballots shall be made in person or by mail on a blank to be furnished by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the applicant is a qualified elector. The blank upon request is to be sent to the voter by mail or delivered in person should he call at the clerk's office. The blank form bears an oath that the applicant is a qualified voter entitled to vote at the named precinct or that he will have attained the age of 21 years prior to such election.

The law provides for the mailing
of the ballots to the absent voters.
He shall enclose the ballots in an envelope, unsealed, and also a printed affidavit. The affidavit is to be sworn to before an official with a seal and
is to certify that the affiant exhibited the ballot unmarked and in his presence and in such a manner that could not be seen marked the ballot and enclosed and sealed the same.

The envelope is to be mailed by registered mail to the clerk or if more convenient in person. The law provides "that any such ballot to
be valid shall be received by the clerk of the circuit court in time for him to deposit it with the election board of such voters' precinct before the closing of the polls on election day."

Section 9 of the law follows: "In the event that an absent voter's ballot shall be received by the clerk of the circuit court prior to the delivery of the official ballots to the election inspectors of the precinct in which such elector resides, such enclosed envelope, shall be delivered to the election inspector of such precinct along with such official ballots. In the event that the official ballots for such precinct have already been delivered to the election inspector of such precinct at the time of the receipt by such clerk of the circuit court of such absent voter's ballot, such clerk shall immediately enclose such envelope containing the absent voter's ballot, together with his application there-
of, in a large or carrier envelope, which shall be securely sealed and endorsed on the face to the election inspector of the proper precinct, giving the name or number of the precinct, the street and number of the polling place or the city or town in which such absent voter is a qualified elector and the word: 'This envelope contains an absent voter's ballot and must be opened only on election day at the polls while the polls are open,' and he shall mail such ballot and application, postage prepaid to such election inspector, or, if more convenient such clerk of the circuit court may deliver such absent voter's ballot and application to the election inspector in person or by duly deputized agent. If delivered in person such clerk or agent shall secure from the election inspector a receipt for the delivery of such ballot or ballots.
Provided, however, that such delivery of ballots in person shall be made without expense to the county."

The law provides that at any time

Every Family to Take $100 Bond

In Order for Liberty Loan to be Subscribed, Every Person in United States Must Subscribe $7, Treasury Officials Estimate Today.

$230,000,000 A DAY NEEDED

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 12.—By Friday
noon $7 must be subscribed to the Liberty Loan for every man, woman and child in the United States if the $2,000,000,000 issue is to be successful, according to figures at the treasury department today. An average of one $100 bond for the nation's 20 million families must be subscribed by Friday noon if America's credit and integrity are to be preserved.

This means that the American people must subscribe $230,000,000 a day to the loan for the remaining three days.

Treasury officials do not doubt that the nation will rise to this emergency and that the needed money will flow in. It must come at the rate of $10,000,000 an hour or $166,666 a minute. Besides the thousands of agencies of the federal government, 30,000 banks, thousands of business organizations and clubs, 400,000 Boy Scouts began today the final drive to make the bond issue a success.

President is Anxious it Become Law by Next Week and May go Be-

DEMOCRATS OPPOSING IT

Situation Now Than in the War Itself

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 12.—Chairman
Lever of the house agriculture committee this afternoon formally reported the administration food control bill with a committee report explaining its provisions. The bill will be taken up late this week or early next.

Methods to expedite action of the food control measure will be considered by the cabinet late this afternoon.

The President is anxious that congress should pass the bill by next week. Protests against high prices are being received from all sections of the country. There appears to be more interest in the food situation at this moment than in the war itself. People who feel the pinch of high prices say they cannot be highly patriotic to a government which permits speculators to rob them.

The president is determined there shall be no further unnecessary delay. He may go before congress in person and urge that the bill be passed immediately. Meanwhile the president is facing opposition in his own party and the republicans in congress are being counted on to push the bill through.

The committee will not consider the measure probably until the house has acted on it late this week or early next.

Charges that the measure is autocratic and unjustifiable have been made from the democratic side.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE CANVASS OF CITY

Visit Every Home and Present Cause
Accept Payments

EACH ONE CARRIES CIRCULARS

Court House Bell Tolls For Fifteen Minutes, Indicating That Only Four Days Remain

Boy Scouts began a canvass of the city this morning to sell Liberty Loan Bonds. The city was district-ed and a Boy Scout called at every home in Rushville to present the question of a purchase of a bond to aid the government in the war against Germany.

The boys were not empowered to close a deal—that is, the banks did not give them the authority to accept the first payment or any part of the sum paid for a bond. The Scouts were instructed to explain the Liberty Loan and then if the person wished to subscribe, the banks will send any representative the subscriber desires to close the deal.

The court house bell tolled for fifteen minutes last night—four strokes at a time—to let the people know that there were only four more days
in which to subscribe to the Liberty Loan. The bell will toll again tonight to indicate that there are only three days left, and so on each night until the campaign closes. This was arranged by the bankers organization at the request of the United States treasury.

A committee from the Ivy lodge
No. 27, Knights of Pythias, announced today that the lodge had subscribed $2,500 to the Liberty Loan. This is the largest subscription taken by any organization so far and is the largest sum subscribed by any lodge. The Masonic lodge at Orange was the first lodge to make a subscription here.

Bankers reported today that small individual subscriptions continued to come in. One told of a subscription of $200 by a maid in a Rushville home as an illustration of the sacrifices that are being made by many persons when there are many others much more able to subscribe who have done nothing.

One banker told of a young man of German parentage who subscribed for a bond. He said to the banker that he understood the situation and that was the reason he was willing to make a sacrifice to America.
The young man declared that he had been fraternizing with certain Germans away from here and had learned just what the kaiser expected to do if he won this war.

The banks today called attention to the fact that they would care for the bonds of subscribers without any cost to the subscribers. They will keep the bonds in their vaults so that they will be safe.

Boy Scouts representing all three patrols in the city held a meeting at the First Presbyterian church last night and organized for the campaign which opened this morning. Two boys were assigned to each street running east and west, one boy to go on each side of the street and work all cross streets
from his side of the street half way.

Each Boy Scout carried a supply of large circulars, twelve by nineteen inches, explaining the Liberty Loan. In concise terms the circular tells what a Liberty Loan bond pays, that there is no red tape about the purchase, that the payment should be made to the bank or a certified collector and the times for paying installments if the subscriber does not want to pay cash.

At the bottom of the reverse side
of the circular is an application blank which the subscriber may fill out and the Boy Scout return to headquarters. The upper part of this side may be torn off and hung in the window to show the person living in that house has subscribed in Greece.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste—25 cents for a large 2 ounce tube.

SHIP SHORTAGE ONE OF BIGGEST PROBLEMS

That Dispatch of Bulk of Army May Be Delayed by Lack of Transports is Admitted

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, June 12.—Shortage of ships for military transport service constitutes one of the biggest problems before America today.

That the dispatch of the bulk of the new army may have to be delayed because of a lack of transports is admitted by officials. There are sufficient ships to carry vast numbers of soldiers but this is only a small part of the problem, inasmuch as these men must be constantly supplied with food, clothing and other equipment.

PETROLITE SUNK BY GERMAN U-BOAT

Two Boats of Survivors From American Steamer are Missing and Third Lands Safely

WAS ATTACKED ONCE BEFORE

Washington, June 12.—The American steamer Petrolite has been sunk by a German submarine, the state department was advised today in a consular telegram. A boat with ten men has reached shore. Two boats are missing.

The Petrolite figured in an important diplomatic controversy with Austria before the United States declared a state of war with Germany. The steamship was attacked without warning on December 5, 1915 by a submarine of unknown nationality, but believed to have been Austrian. One sailor on board the Standard Oil tanker was wounded but the vessel itself escaped damage.

The Petrolite has been engaged in transporting oil to the allies.

The Richmond boys have camped along Flatrock near here for a number of summers but heretofore they have always been taken to and from the camp in machines. They marched from Connersville here.

Oldsmobile
19th Year

As an automobile purchaser you are interested in just six things: Appearance, Reputation, Durability, Performance, Service, Price.

APPEARANCE

The Oldsmobile Eight is as neat and trim as a deer. It is distinctive in every line; it attracts attention everywhere. Its 17-coat luster finish, beautiful trim and luxurious upholstery make it a car you will be proud to own.

REPUTATION

The name "Oldsmobile" in itself is a guarantee. The car is built by a factory organization of trained men, many of them "honest years" in Oldsmobile service, who have a knowledge only of the construction of a high-grade car. By reason of increased production and the elimination of well known extravagances, over one hundred high-grade automobiles are created daily under the same rigorous standards and inspection which have always been associated with the name "Oldsmobile." Where else, indeed, would one look for a car enjoying the continuous favorable reputation accorded the Oldsmobile?

DURABILITY

The same high standard of material and workmanship exacted through all these years of quality building enter into the Oldsmobile Eight. Oldsmobile reputation is a veritable bond to you for honest product and durability. Its prestige is built on years of creditable record operation.

PERFORMANCE

Remarkable flexibility, fascinating smoothness of overlapping power impulses, abundance of reserve power, rapid acceleration from small's pace to limited's speed, freedom from vibration—all characteristics of Oldsmobile construction—now perfected to a new degree. The comfort of the car is revealed; the resiliency of the springs and Marshall cushion comfort upholstery contribute riding qualities unknown in cars of the same price class.

SERVICE

A twelve months' guarantee is back of each Oldsmobile. Service stations will be found everywhere. The accessibility of the eight-cylinder motor enables quick access to working parts and at a minimum expense. Likewise all mechanical units are readily get-at-able.

Not several thousands or some other prohibitive amount, as demanded for most cars of its quality class, but simply $1367.00 f. o. b. Lansing.

DEMURRER ARGUED IN CIRCUIT COURT

STONE CO. WANTS NEW TRIAL

The attention of the circuit court today was occupied by the argument of a demurrer in the case of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions against the estate of the late Nancy A. Furry. The suit is on a note, demanding $5,000.

A motion for a new trial was filed by the Greeley Stone company of St. Paul in the case in which the plaintiff is the Ingersoll-Rand company of New York. The jury which heard the case returned a verdict for Greeley in the sum of $100. Under the verdict Greeley did not get to retain the machine. The defendant considers the verdict a victory for the plaintiff and holds that the verdict is not supported by the evidence in the case.

PRINCESS — WEDNESDAY

THE WHEEL OF JUSTICE

A Market That Steadily Renews Itself

The works in which the car is produced have grown till they are almost a city in themselves.

But when the satisfaction of the market seems to be in sight, the horizon of that market widens and draws itself still farther away.

The reason for it all is so simple that it sounds almost absurd.

That simple reason is that the goodness of the car is seldom called into question.

The thoughts about it are the same thoughts in thousands of minds.

The market grows by what it feeds on—and what it feeds on is the performance of the car.

Deep and abounding satisfaction surrounds the sale and the use of practically every car that leaves the works.

Dodge Brothers are among the largest producers in the world.

But they will never imperil their production by sacrificing quality to mere quantity.

For that reason we believe the condition will always be what it is now.

We believe the goodness of the car will always produce a demand it will be impossible to entirely supply.

It does not look as though the market for this car could ever be entirely satisfied.

That sounds like a strange statement, but there is a sound reason for making it.

A shortage has continued now, for two years and a half, in the face of a large and steady increase in output.

The shortage may not be local, or sectional, or seasonal, but it is national, universal and continuous.

Unlimited production is not consistent with Dodge Brothers scrupulous methods of manufacture.

They must always give to their car that over-care which the public expects from them.

It is the root, and the source, and the reason for that very steadiness of demand we are describing.

They will never go beyond a production point which might place their reputation in jeopardy.

A more remarkable recognition of merit on the part of the public it would be difficult to conceive.

Every increase in production is comfortably absorbed in an increased market.

Paying as we Go

With all due respect to the rights of posterity, we are in danger of overdoing the matter of "paying as we go" in this war. Under ordinary circumstances this is a most praiseworthy policy, but this is an extraordinary occasion in the life of the world, or at least that portion of it represented by the democracies of the world.

The present generation is called upon to wage a war that has no parallel in history. To this struggle must be brought every ounce of the nation's energy, and be sure it will be taxed to the very limit unless all signs fail.

We must raise prodigious armies of men for fighting, and we must mobilize equally prodigious armies for production. Each of these armies has a stupendous task before it, and if that task is to be accomplished the armies must be permitted the free use of every resource available.

If we were engaged in a struggle for a mere temporary advantage the "pay as you go" policy would be fair. But we are aiming at results that will benefit future generations even more than the present. The fate of democracy is in the balance. We are called upon to fight for its permanent establishment in the earth. For what purpose? For that of rendering this earth a better habitation for our children than it has been for their fathers. Should then be called upon to do all of the work and all of the paying?

To be specific: In our provisions for financing this year both now and in later periods, we should be very careful that the productive power of the country is not crippled. Great care should be exercised in the levying of taxes, that the full efficiency of productive agencies be not lowered by undue taxation. Every industry and every individual should be permitted to exert their full power, and only surplus accumulations should be sacrificed.

Billions of working capital can be raised on bonds bearing nominal interest. The government's credit is unlimited.

This is a fight for the future of mankind, and future generations should bear their share of the burdens. And at that they will make no such sacrifices as the present generation will be called upon to make.

Since we must give both of our accumulations and our lives, our descendants should give at least something of their accumulations.

Food Container Shortage

In order to avoid serious delay and probable food loss during the approaching harvest season, growers and shippers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to estimate accurately their needs and place their orders for barrels, crates, hampers, baskets and other containers for food products at once. They should notify manufacturers to begin making deliveries immediately, or at least as soon as their crops are reasonably assured. Larger supplies of containers will be needed this season than usual. Since crops of most perishable products must be moved as soon as ready to harvest, serious financial loss to growers and shippers and failure to save needed crops may result unless orders for packages are placed promptly and shipments begun within the next few weeks.

The Department of Agriculture is in receipt of advice from widely separated parts of the United States that there may be a package shortage this season unless growers and shippers are able to anticipate their needs. It will be difficult for manufacturers to meet the emergency should abnormal demand for additional packages for perishable crops arise in the midst of the harvest season. At that time, it is pointed out, traffic on railroads will be heaviest and shipments may be much delayed when most needed. The responsibility of manufacturers to put forth every reasonable effort to help meet the situation should not be overlooked.

Henry Clews, the New York financier, speaks most encouragingly of the world events of the past week, calling attention to the fact that "registration day passed off successfully, and the total absence of disorder, as well as the patriotic manner in which the 10,000,000 young men responded to the call, was assurance of the fact that notwithstanding fears and agitation to the contrary the United States was in fact and name a united country. From Europe the news was also more encouraging. The Allies are making steady progress; the submarine warfare shows signs of weakening, and disturbances in Russia seem less threatening than a few weeks ago. Reports concerning the Liberty Loan continue highly stimulating, and all indications point to its complete success in spite of the difficulties of raising such a vast sum before our people had been hurt or stung into very strenuous belligerency. All in all, the week's developments were of a stimulating nature, and were distinctly reflected in a more active and stronger stock market.

TRIAL OF POLICE OFFICERS OPENS

Judge Geiger of Milwaukee on Bench When Indianapolis Men Face Trial Today

SIX HAVE PLEADED GUILTY

Most Prominent in List Is Chief Perrott—Concerns 1914 Election Fraud

Lafayette, Ind., June 12.—Purdue Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—With Judge Ferdinand A. Geiger of the United States district court of Milwaukee presiding, the trial of Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott and other Indianapolis officials opened in federal court today. Judge Anderson declined to hear the case because he presided in the damage suit of Alexander Campbell, a negro, for $25,000 against Perrott and other police officials in which testimony was given which caused Anderson to give special instructions to the grand jury, resulting in the indictment of the police officials.

Six of the Indianapolis men indicted have pleaded guilty to the charges and may take the witness stand for the government. The men are charged with intimidating voters at the 1914 election. Statutes under which they were indicted differ from those on which Evansville and Frankfort men were indicted. The latter were accused of buying and selling votes.

Beside Chief Perrott, those who went on trial are: Police Sergeants Wayland E. Sanders, Mortimer C. Hulsey, Capt. Roy Pope; Herman Adam, city sealer; Frank M. Johnson and Oscar Merrill, lieutenants of police. Dennis Bush, former street commissioner and five other minor political workers who have admitted their guilt, were also named in the indictment.

NEW LAW TO GET FIRST TEST IN THE SPECIAL ELECTION

during the opening and closing of the polls the election inspector, in the presence of the rest of the board shall open the envelopes containing the absent voter's ballot and after comparing the signatures, if they are found correct, the ballot is to be deposited and the absent voter shall be recorded as having voted.

The vote of an absent voter may be challenged for cause and the election board has the power and authority to hear and determine the legality of such ballots the same as though the ballots were cast by the voter in person. Before the vote is cast the inspector shall notify the poll book holders and the challengers that he is about to deposit an absent voter's ballot.

DREAM OF TUNNEL UNDER CHANNEL

By F. W. GETTY (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, June 12.—One of the fondest dreams of England's engineers for centuries, a tunnel beneath the English Channel, will probably be realized after the war.

Sir Francis Fox has enabled the United Press to give an outline of how such a tunnel, which, burrowing 100 feet beneath the sea-floor, could disgorge express and freight trains between England and France, and remove forever the menace of the submarine, can be constructed.

To drive a double tunnel through the grey Cenomanian chalk, diverting it ingeniously at one point through the gault, is today a simple feat of engineering, Sir Francis declared. Revolving cutters, fixed in Greathead shields, will eat through the earth like butter and the debris can be constantly removed from the face by high-speed endless belts, discharging directly into wagons.

The Fox plan includes two tunnels, each eighteen feet in diameter, joined at intervals of 200 yards by cross tunnels. A complete system of ventilation is to be worked by electricity. Electric trains are to bring and take away the workmen.

In case such a tunnel should be seized by a hostile force, a water-lock, constructed to deal with such an emergency will enable the adjacent military authorities to flood it with water at an instant's notice. When the emergency is over the water can be pumped out by electric power.

The English entrance to the tunnel would be commanded by the Dover forts and by men-of-war in Dover harbor.

Garden Space Occupied by Early Crops Can Again be Utilized Says H. J. Reed

Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—Planting of navy beans between June 20 and July 1 on all garden space which up to that time has been occupied by early garden crops, was advised today by H. J. Reed of Purdue university in a bulletin issued through the office of G. I. Christie, state food director.

This will permit the harvesting of two crops from the same land and also late planting of beans is to be preferred, the bulletin states, as it reduces to a considerable extent the danger of loss from rust that attacks the leaves.

university's summer school for teachers opened today. One of the main courses of instruction during the summer session will be a short course in food preservation, starting the week of June 18. The instruction will include practical work in drying, canning, storing and other methods of preserving foods. This course was added this season on account of the great necessity for this sort of training in conserving the food supply.

Those who will attend the lectures and demonstrations are workers now supervising girls clubs and food agents working with Purdue. Those who take this course, will give demonstrations over the state so that the effect of the training will be to educate a great many in the work.

News has been received here of the wedding of Miss Daisy Notley of Roswell, N. M., and Andrew Guffin, also of Roswell, who formerly lived in this county and has many relatives and friends here. The following from a Roswell newspaper is regarding the wedding:

A wedding of unusual interest to the musical and church circles of Roswell occurred last night at the Guffin home, north of town, when Miss Daisy Notley became the bride of Andrew Guffin. The wedding of these two popular and talented people was a distinct surprise. Miss Notley has been a successful piano teacher in Roswell, and since her residence in the city the popular and admired pianist of the First Christian church. Mr. Guffin has been a prominent member of the First Christian church, active in choir and various church organizations. The wedding was the culmination of a quiet romance that began during the Brown-Garth meeting. There was about forty guests present, who came expecting to have a farewell social for the Guffin family, who were to leave the city shortly to make their home elsewhere. Mr. Guffin had invited the choir to the home for this social event, but not informing them of the real nature of the occasion. Following an evening of games and music, the minister, of the First Christian church, Rev. Alfred O. Kuhn, called Miss Notley and Mr. Guffin to the center of the room, and announced to the assembled guests that there was a surprise in store for them. Mr. Kuhn proceeded to read a marriage ceremony to the astonishment of the guests, who had been in ignorance of the proposed wedding. Before the guests could recover from their surprise the ceremony was ended. Congratulations were showered upon the happy couple, after which delicious refreshments of ice cream and heart shaped cakes were served. The bride looked very charming in a beautiful soft white gown.

ALLIES SQUEEZING THE TEUTON GRIP

Field Marshal Haig Forces Relinquishment of Additional Belgium Territory

ITALY ON A NEW OFFENSIVE

(By United Press.)

London, June 12.—On every western front today the allies were squeezing the Teuton grip with new strength. Field Marshal Haig forced relinquishment of additional Belgium territory held by the Germans. To the south the French pressure on the badly battered Hindenburg line was steadily increased.

Italy was apparently starting on another offensive in the Terinto. She has just concluded the first stage of one successful offensive in the Carso and Austria must keep great forces constantly massed there.

Whether Senator Watson will speak here during the brief campaign is not known, but may be determined at the meeting today.

Revised Figures Issued by Provost Marshal Not up to Census Bureau Estimate

THOUSANDS OF SLACKERS

Washington, June 12.—Total registration for selective service will be approximately 9,250,000, according to revised figures given out today by the provost marshal general. This number is more than one million below the original census estimate.

While officials realize there are probably thousands of slackers they pointed out following the revision of the estimate that the number will be less than first expected.

Revision of the figures was made when the provost marshal general's office realized that in using the census figures officials did not take into account the fact that about 600,000 men of eligible age have already volunteered for service.

Another factor in the revision was the realization that the census estimate, made previous to the war, did not take into account that in the past three years immigration has practically stopped.

MAY ADDRESS MEN AT FORT

Senator Watson Requested to Address Candidates for Army Officers

Senator James E. Watson left for Indianapolis at eleven o'clock this morning with the expectation of speaking to the candidates at the officers training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison tonight. Senator Watson was invited by Colonel Glenn, commander of the post, to speak to the men Wednesday night, but since the Clark-Stanley suit suddenly ended at Newcastle yesterday, for the time being, he was anxious to get back to Washington as soon as possible. For that reason Senator Watson expected to request that the time for his speech be changed to tonight.

BRITAIN APPEALS TO WOMEN

Urges Economy in Kitchen as War Measure

London, June 12.—The Government appealing to the women of England to practice economy in the kitchen, published a circular for distribution to all women, which says: "The British fighting line shifts and extends; and now you are in it. The struggle is not on only land and sea; it is in your larder, your kitchen, and your dining room. Every meal you serve is now literally a battle. Every well cooked meal that saves bread and wastes no food is a victory. Our men are beating the Germans on land and sea. You can beat them in the larder and kitchen."

CASE IS SENT TO ANDERSON

said they did not understand why the government did not appropriate money for the Red Cross since it was so necessary to the army. He gave it as his personal opinion that the good and sufficient reason was that people did not become an intimate part of the organization and did not feel that they had done anything for their country simply by paying a war tax.

The war relief campaign is the greatest campaign for a relief fund in the history of the world, and it is the greatest movement of the kind in which Indiana has ever been asked to participate. Indiana is to be stormed from lake to river that people from city, town and farm may have opportunity to subscribe to the cause which is going to be of vital importance to Hoosier soldier boys who are sent to the battle front of Europe, or who may later have to defend American soil from the threatening invader. The whole force of the American nation is lining up behind the Red Cross, and Indiana people are expected to rally

The management of the campaign is in the hands of A. F. Bentley state director of the Red Cross, with an organized force of workers in each congressional district where a secretary is directing the county movements. S. P. Withrow of Cincinnati has been secured as campaign leader in the field. A special campaign organization exists in the city of Indianapolis where an executive committee headed by William Fortune with J. W. Lilly and Frank D. Stalnaker among the members in charge. H. W. Eldridge of Allentown, Pa., is the campaign leader for Indianapolis. All over the United States the most active men are engaged in this same campaign. New York city, for example, Mayor Mitchell and J. P. Morgan are both on the lists of team captains who will work every day securing subscription as they have the Liberty bond and the Y. M. C. A. war work movements.

The campaign in Indiana is headed by a Red Cross War Fund Campaign committee of which Governor Goodrich is chairman.

The members are: descriptions during the campaign week.

The leaders in this Red Cross cause say that the people of Indiana must act and give promptly if the state is to take a foremost position in the nation-wide campaign for funds. But a more important reason for promptness is that America is in a desperate position and that the Red Cross is one of its mightiest agencies in the critical time. The great fund must be in hand for the protection and comfort of the American armies which are already starting for the blood-soaked regions of Europe. The Red Cross fund is to be used to provide war unit hospitals which will follow the American armies wherever they go. Ambulance companies, a branch of the hospital work as important as the hospitals themselves, are also to be provided out of the fund. Tuberculosis is sweeping the armies of Europe because inadequate defense against the white plague was not provided in the beginning. Part of the Red Cross fund is to go for safeguarding the American soldiers against the ravage of this and other diseases which are to be dreaded as enemy bullets.

America is going into the war to break the deadlock which now seems to exist along the east and west fronts of Europe. Americans must win the war now on European soil, or it may have to be fought to the finish on our own soil. Vast as the $100,000,000 Red Cross fund may seem, it is less than two days cost of the war as it is now being fought abroad and as it may cost should it be transferred to our own land.

So Americans are being appealed to to support their own interests in every possible way during this critical period—to prepare for war, by giving up their sons, and to stand behind the youth of the country as it goes forth to fight by entrenching the Red Cross as the one mighty relief force ready for all emergencies behind the battle lines.

There is no limit to the amount which a Hoosier may give to the Red Cross fund, but the gifts must be generous if the state is to reach its apportionment of $1,500,000. Although the actual canvas for funds does not start until July 18, several gifts of $1,000,000 each have been pledged in New York and large sums are also pledged by Chicago citizens.

Every county in Indiana now has a fully organized chapter of the Red Cross and forces of workers are ready to canvass for subscriptions, and in every county too the state committee urges that the appeal for funds be promptly responded to.

A Few Summer Hints for Home Gardner to Follow

Department of Agriculture Horticulturists Outline Principles For Making a Success of the Home Vegetable Patch.

II. PUT COLD FRAMES TO USE IN SUMMER

Gardeners too often waste the producing power of the rich, well tilled soil of cold frames after early started crops have been removed and set in the garden, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

It should be recognized, the specialists point out, that most of the garden crops of early spring which ordinarily cannot be grown to good advantage in the open after dry hot weather sets in, can be grown satisfactorily at such a time in cold frames. Among such vegetables are lettuce, radishes and early beets. All these plants thrive best under cool, fairly moist conditions. The sides of the cold frames furnish a partial shade and a good protection from drying winds and so help to simulate conditions found in the spring in the open. If it is desired,

Lettuce and radish seed may be planted together in the frames. The radishes will mature first and will be out of the way by the time the space is needed for lettuce. If planted thick, the surplus lettuce should be removed when the plants are a few inches high. If spaced an inch or so the surplus plants need not be removed until they are large enough to be eaten. The lettuce plants which are to be allowed to head should be left about 6 inches apart.

Beets may be planted between the rows of lettuce after the latter is well along, and permitted to grow after the lettuce has been harvested.

By planting these crops successively cold frames may be put to intensive use throughout the growing season.

CONSTIPATION PILES AND HEMORRHOIDS

It is a well known fact that Piles, Hemorrhoids and troubles of that kind, as a rule, have their origin in constipation. Look back to the time you first noticed the disagreeable, painful feeling that pile sufferers know only too well. The bowels were constipated. Cathartics were used almost incessantly.

The origin of constipation can be traced to indigestion in almost every instance. The food, instead of digesting properly, passes out of the stomach in an undigested, non-assimilative condition. In this form it enters the bowels, clogs them and constipates.

A systematic digestion of your food will prevent constipation. Many take cathartics for this trouble, when it would be far better to go to the seat of the trouble, the stomach. Pepinco, the perfect digestant, is used by thousands and has proven a boon to hundreds of sufferers of constipation, piles and hemorrhoids, because it has been demonstrated to be the only logical method of regulating the bowels.

Pepinco acts upon the food as it enters the stomach, preparing it for assimilation quickly and surely. It is a well known fact that well digested food will never constipate. It is equally well known that undigested food does constipate, therefore, the logical method of curing constipation is the perfect digestion of the food as it enters the stomach.

If you have Piles; if you have Hemorrhoids; we would suggest that you go at once to the drug store and get a small package of Pepinco, which will regulate your bowels and cure your piles and hemorrhoids. All druggists carry Pepinco. It is inexpensive and easy to take.

COMPROMISE CASE FOR COMPENSATION

HIT ON HEAD BY PILE DRIVER

The case of Claude Levi against the Peters Construction company for compensation insurance, was compromised this morning before the trial of the case started before Charles R. Hughes, a member of the state industrial board. The hearing was set for Rushville today and Mr. Hughes was here ready for the trial when an agreement was reached.

Levi was hit on the head by a pile driver on January 30, 1917 while working for the Peters company on a bridge. He claimed disability for a period of thirty days and alleged his average wage earning was $20 a week. It is understood that he received about $15 in the settlement. The member of the industrial board went from here to Connersville where two cases were to be tried.

Rush County's Share War Relief $10,500

What is Expected of Community in Red Cross Campaign Next Week Imparted to Finance Committee

ORGANIZATION INCOMPLETE

Whether Allotment Will be Distribu-

Basis Not Determined

E. B. Thomas Shows Committee and Helpers Seriousness of Situation—Senator Watson Speaks

Rush county will have to raise $10,500 for the Red Cross War Relief Fund next week.

This was the information impart-
ed to the finance committee and other Red Cross workers from the auxiliaries in the county by E. B.
Thomas, chairman, at a meeting at
headquarters last night.

Mr. Thomas reported on the meeting of the state Red Cross workers
which he attended in Indianapolis
last Thursday evening. He heard the report of the two Indiana men
who were in Washington at the Red Cross War Council when it was determined that the United States should raise $100,000,000 for the relief and protection of United States soldiers going to war.

Indiana's share is $1,500,000 and Indianapolis alone will donate $300,- 000 of this amount. There is a recognized Red Cross chapter in
eighty-five counties of the state
county will be enlisted in this campaign.

Robert E. Mansfield, who attended the meeting in Indianapolis with Mr. Thomas, added a word in which he touched on the serious phase of the situation. He said the people had not yet realized that war is
had really made a sacrifice on account of the war. He said that Rush county had to raise its allotment in a week and that the people were going to have to make sacrifices to do it.

Late in the evening it was reported that Senator James E. Watson
was in the city and that he could probably be persuaded to speak for
a few minutes regarding conditions
in general and how the feeling in Washington was towards the war.
Senator Watson came and spoke
briefly, dwelling on the serious
phase of the situation. He talked
of the terrible conditions in France,
giving information which he had
gained from personal conversation
with General Joffre and other members of the French commission.

Senator Watson praised the gathering of men and women present for
the active part they were taking.
He said it was a time when every-
talents to the best interests of the country and that there should be no
slackers.

The question of how the finance committee should organize for the canvass was left open to be determined at a meeting later in the week.
The suggestion was made that the
teams should work by voting pre-
cincts but the whole matter was left unsettled until the committee receives subscription cards and other
literature in regard to the campaign.
from state headquarters. Mr.
Thomas said the subscription cards
would explain methods of payment.
be paid in installments, if the donor
the whole sum at once. This is ar-

Rush County Must Bear Its Share of the War Burdens

The war must be ended.
America can end it, but not by faltering, half-way exertions.
France has bled white.
England has poured out her strength.
America must supply the driving force that breaks the deadlock.
America must win the war now on European soil, or lose it later on her own.
The American National Red Cross asks $100,000,000 for our army and for the Allies. This is less than the expense of two days of war.
Rush county has to raise $10,500 next week as her share.
It will provide many much-needed hospitals and ambulance companies.
SOME may fight, but ALL can give.
"Play your part."

son that the Red Cross does not propose to spend this $100,000,000 all
at once and therefore will not need it all now.
The committee in charge of the campaign allows twenty-five per cent for expenses but it is planned to use very little of the fund for that purpose here. The question of apportionment of the Rush county allotment among the twelve townships
county's proportion is fifty cents
per capita because there are approximately twenty thousand people
in the county. Whether it would be feasible for the amount to be raised
to be apportioned among the town-
question which will have to be decided. Some of the auxiliary members from out in the county said
that the farmers were not aroused
to the situation because they were
so busy now with their crops that
they had no time to give to reading
or attending meetings so that they did not know the true conditions
nor the seriousness of them. For
to whether the out townships would
of fifty cents for each resident of the township.

Mr. Thomas tried to impress on
the members of the finance committee the seriousness of America's
part and the burdens which have fallen to her lot. He was impressed
that members of the finance committee must know the real situation to
ask to donate.

The burden of Mr. Thomas' talk
was that now is the time to give.
Red Cross War Relief now was
worth two or three dollars later because the Red Cross needs the money to prepare the way for the United States soldiers in France. He declared that the person is near-sighted indeed who does not see the value
of Red Cross aid extended to America's allies. It is after all, a selfish matter, he said, even for the Red Cross to help them because it is only
serving to make conditions better
for the men from this country.

As an example of the disorganization of Red Cross work on the eastern front, Mr. Thomas cited the fact that on a front a thousand miles on
only six thousand ambulances. That seemed like a good many ambu-
considered that here are 64,000 am-
miles.

Mr. Thomas recalled that many

RED CROSS BENEFIT BALL IS ABANDONED

to Factory Starting This Week
It Had to be Given Up

The ball planned for the benefit of the Red Cross has been abandoned.
in which arrangements had to be made and because the Red Cross as
an organization could not be behind
the benefit, it had to be given up last night.

The Modern Appliance company
was busy with the building getting
ready to begin business at once
with their plans. They hope to have
that the ball had to be held by Wednesday night if at all. Because of this there was no time to sell
and no organization to take the responsibility.

President E. Falk of the Modern Appliance company has arrived here
for permanent residence. He said this morning that he hoped to have
the factory running full tilt by next Monday, although preliminary work
will be done before then. The machinery is being set in position rapidly.

Vote by Mail in Congressional Election in This District

CLERK SUPPLIES THE BLANK

This Class of Votes May be Chal-
Cast by Person Themselves

The new Indiana law giving absent voters the right to vote by mail
will get its first test in the congressional election to be held in this district on June 26. The necessary
blanks are in the hands of Clerk Moore and the election board is preparing to use this feature of the Indiana election laws.

Application for absent voter's
mail on a blank to be furnished by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the applicant is a qualified elector. The blank upon request is to be sent to the voter by
mail or delivered in person should he
call at the clerk's office. The blank
form bears an oath that the applicant is a qualified voter entitled to vote at the named precinct or that
years prior to such election.

The law provides for the mailing
of the ballots to the absent voters.
He shall enclose the ballots in an envelope, unsealed, and also a printed
to before an official with a seal and
is to certify that the affiant exhibited the ballot unmarked and in his presence and in such a manner that could not been seen marked the ballot and enclosed and sealed the
same.

The envelope is to be mailed by registered mail to the clerk or if
be valid shall be received by the clerk of the circuit court in time
for him to deposit it with the elec-
before the closing of the polls on
election day."

Section 9 of the law follows: "In
the event that an absent voter's
ballot shall be received by the clerk
of the circuit court prior to the delivery of the official ballots to the election inspectors of the precinct in
which such elector resides, such enclosed envelope, shall be delivered
precinct along with such official
ballots. In the event that the official ballots for such precinct have
already been delivered to the election inspector of such precinct at the time of the receipt by such clerk of the circuit court of such absent
voter's ballot, such clerk shall immediately enclose such envelope
containing the absent voter's ballot,
together with his application there-
of, in a large or carrier envelope,
which shall be securely sealed and
inspector of the proper precinct,
giving the name or number of the
precinct, the street and number of
in which such absent voter is a qualified elector and the word: 'This
envelope contains an absent voter's
election day at the polls while the
polls are open,' and he shall mail
such ballot and application, postage prepaid to such election inspector, or, if more convenient such
liver such absent voter's ballot and
application to the election inspector in person or by duly deputized agent. If delivered in person such
election inspector a receipt for the
Provided, however, that such delivery of ballots in person shall be made without expense to the county."

The law provides that at any time

Every Family to Take $100 Bond

Treasury Officials Estimate To-
day.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 12.—By Friday
noon $7 must be subscribed to the Liberty Loan for every man, woman and child in the United States if the $2,000,000,000 issue is to be successful, according to figures at the treasury department today. An average of one $100 bond for the nation's 20 million families must be subscribed by Friday noon if America's credit and integrity are to be preserved.

This means that the American people must subscribe $230,000,000
a day to the loan for the remaining
three days.

Treasury officials do not doubt that the nation will rise to this emergency and that the needed money
will flow in. It must come at the rate of $10,000,000 an hour or $166,666 a minute. Besides the thousands of agencies of the federal government, 30,000 banks, thousands of business organizations and
clubs, 400,000 Boy Scouts began today the final drive to make the bond issue a success.

President is Anxious it Become Law
by Next Week and May go Be-

War Itself

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 12.—Chairman
Lever of the house agriculture committee this afternoon formally reported the administration food control bill with a committee report ex-
be taken up late this week or early
next.

Methods to expedite action of the
food control measure will be considered by the cabinet late this afternoon.

The President is anxious that
congress should pass the bill by
next week. Protests against high prices are being received from all sections of the country. There ap-
situation at this moment than in the
pinch of high prices say they cannot be highly patriotic to a government which permits speculators to rob them.

The president is determined there
shall be no further unnecessary delay. He may go before congress in person and urge that the bill be passed immediately. Meanwhile the president is facing opposition in his
own party and the republicans in
congress are being counted on to
push the bill through.

The committee will not consider
the measure probably until the
or early next.

Charges that the measure is autocratic and unjustifiable have been
made from the democratic side.

ing plans to distribute all provisions

Visit Every Home and Present Cause

Minutes, Indicating That Only
Four Days Remain

Boy Scouts began a canvass of
the city this morning to sell Liberty Loan Bonds. The city was district-ed and a Boy Scout called at every
question of a purchase of a bond to
aid the government in the war against Germany.

The boys were not empowered to
the first payment or any part of the sum paid for a bond. The Scouts were instructed to explain the Liberty Loan and then if the person wished to subscribe, the banks will send any representative the subscriber desires to close the deal.

The court house bell tolled for fifteen minutes last night—four strokes at a time—to let the people know that there were only four more days
in which to subscribe to the Liberty Loan. The bell will toll again to-
three days left, and so on each night
until the campaign closes. This was arranged by the bankers organization at the request of the United States treasury.

A committee from the Ivy lodge
No. 27, Knights of Pythias, announced today that the lodge had subscribed $2,500 to the Liberty Loan. This is the largest subscription taken by any organization so
far and is the largest sum subscribed by any lodge. The Masonic lodge
make a subscription here.

individual subscriptions continued to come in. One told of a subscription
of $200 by a maid in a Rushville
home as an illustration of the sacrifices that are being made by many persons when there are many others who have done nothing.

One banker told of a young man
of German parentage who subscribed for a bond. He said to the banker that he understood the situation
ing to make a sacrifice to America.
The young man declared that he had been fraternizing with certain Germans away from here and had learned just what the kaiser expected to do if he won this war.

The banks today called attention
to the fact that they would care for
the bonds of subscribers without any cost to the subscribers. They will keep the bonds in their vaults so that they will be safe.

Boy Scouts representing all three
patrols in the city held a meeting
at the First Presbyterian church
last night and organized for the campaign which opened this morning. Two boys were assigned to each street running east and west,
one boy to go on each side of the street and work all cross streets
from his side of the street half way.

Each Boy Scout carried a supply
of large circulars, twelve by nineteen inches, explaining the Liberty Loan. In concise terms the circular
tells what a Liberty Loan bond pays,
that there is no red tape about the
purchase, that the payment should
collector and the times for paying installments if the subscriber does not want to pay cash.

At the bottom of the reverse side
of the circular is an application
blank which the subscriber may fill out and the Boy Scout return to
headquarters. The upper part of this side may be torn off and hung
in the window to show the person
living in that house has subscribed.

Senreco
The double-service tooth paste, keeps teeth clean AND GUMS HEALTHY.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health; more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste—25 cents for a large 2 ounce tube.

SHIP SHORTAGE ONE OF BIGGEST PROBLEMS

That Dispatch of Bulk of Army May Be Delayed by Lack of Transports is Admitted

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, June 12.—Shortage of ships for military transport service constitutes one of the biggest problems before America today.

That the dispatch of the bulk of the new army may have to be delayed because of a lack of transports is admitted by officials. There are sufficient ships to carry vast numbers of soldiers but this is only a small part of the problem, inasmuch as these men must be constantly supplied with food, clothing and other equipment.

Washington, June 12.—The American steamer Petrolite has been sunk by a German submarine, the state department was advised today in a consular telegram. A boat with ten men has reached shore. Two boats are missing.

The Petrolite figured in an important diplomatic controversy with Austria before the United States declared a state of war with Germany. The steamship was attacked without warning on December 5, 1915 by a submarine of unknown nationality, but believed to have been Austrian. One sailor on board the Standard Oil tanker was wounded but the vessel itself escaped damage.

The Petrolite has been engaged in transporting oil to the allies.

The Scouts are "hoofing" it like true soldiers and are pulling the wagons carrying their outfits. The Richmond boys have camped along Flatrock near here for a number of summers but heretofore they have always been taken to and from the camp in machines. They marched from Connorsville here.

19th Year

As an automobile purchaser you are interested in just six things: Appearance, Reputation, Durability, Performance, Service, Price.

The Oldsmobile Eight is as neat and trim as a deer. It is distinctive in every line; it attracts attention everywhere. Its 17-coat luster finish, beautiful trim and luxurious upholstery make it a car you will be proud to own.

REPUTATION

The name "Oldsmobile" in itself is a guarantee. The car is built by a factory organization of trained men, many of them fifteen years in Oldsmobile service, who have a knowledge only of the construction of a high-grade car. By reason of increased production and the elimination of well known extravaganzas, over one hundred high-grade automobiles are created daily under the same rigorous standards and inspection which have always been associated with the name Oldsmobile. Where else, indeed, would one look for a car enjoying the continuous favorable reputation accorded the Oldsmobile?

DURABILITY

The same high standard of material and workmanship exacted through all these years of quality building enter into the Oldsmobile Eight. Oldsmobile reputation is a veritable bond to you for honest product and durability. Its prestige is built on years of creditable road operation.

PERFORMANCE

Remarkable flexibility, fascinating smoothness of overlapping power impulses, abundance of reserve power, rapid acceleration from stall's pace to limited speed, freedom from vibration—all characteristic of Oldsmobile construction are perfected to the highest degree. The comfort of the car, the revelation, the resiliency of the springs and Marshall cushion comfort upholstery contribute riding qualities well known in cars of the same price class.

SERVICE

A twelve months' guarantee is back of each Oldsmobile. Service stations will be found everywhere. The accessibility of the eight-cylinder motor enables quick access to working parts and at a minimum expense. Likewise all mechanical units are readily gettable.

STONE CO. WANTS NEW TRIAL

The attention of the circuit court today was occupied by the argument of a demurrer in the case of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions against the estate of the late Nancy A. Furry. The suit is on a note, demanding $5,000.

A motion for a new trial was filed by the Greeley Stone company of St. Paul in the case in which the plaintiff is the Ingersoll-Rand company of New York. The jury which heard the case returned a verdict for Greeley in the sum of $100. Under the verdict Greeley did not get to retain the machine. The defendant considers the verdict a victory for the plaintiff and holds that the verdict is not supported by the evidence in the case.

The works in which the car is produced have grown till they are almost a city in themselves.

But when the satisfaction of the market seems to be in sight, the horizon of that market widens and draws itself still farther away.

The reason for it all is so simple that it sounds almost absurd.

That simple reason is that the goodness of the car is seldom called into question.

The market grows by what it feeds on—and what it feeds on is the performance of the car.

Deep and abounding satisfaction surrounds the sale and the use of practically every car that leaves the works.

Dodge Brothers are among the largest producers in the world.

For that reason we believe the condition will always be what it is now.

We believe the goodness of the car will always produce a demand it will be impossible to entirely supply.

It does not look as though the market for this car could ever be entirely satisfied.

That sounds like a strange statement, but there is a sound reason for making it.

A shortage has continued now, for two years and a half, in the face of a large and steady increase in output.

Unlimited production is not consistent with Dodge Brothers scrupulous methods of manufacture.

They must always give to their car that over-care which the public expects from them.

It is the root, and the source, and the reason for that very steadiness of demand we are describing.

They will never go beyond a production point which might place their reputation in jeopardy.

A more remarkable recognition of merit on the part of the public it would be difficult to conceive.

Paying as we Go

With all due respect to the rights of posterity, we are in danger of overdoing the matter of "paying as we go" in this war. Under ordinary circumstances this is a most praiseworthy policy, but this is an extraordinary occasion in the life of the world, or at least that portion of it represented by the democracies of the world.

The present generation is called upon to wage a war that has no parallel in history. To this struggle must be brought every ounce of the nation's energy, and be sure it will be taxed to the very limit unless all signs fail.

We must raise prodigious armies of men for fighting, and we must mobilize equally prodigious armies for production. Each of these armies has a stupendous task before it, and if that task is to be accomplished the armies must be permitted the free use of every resource available.

If we were engaged in a struggle for a mere temporary advantage, the "pay as you go" policy would be fair. But we are aiming at results that will benefit future generations even more than the present. The fate of democracy is in the balance. We are called upon to fight for its permanent establishment in the earth. For what purpose? For that of rendering this earth a better habitation for our children than it has been for their fathers. Should then be called upon to do all of the work and all of the paying?

To be specific: In our provisions for financing this year both now and in later periods, we should be very careful that the productive power of the country is not crippled. Great care should be exercised in the levying of taxes, that the full efficiency of productive agencies be not lowered by undue taxation. Every industry and every individual should be permitted to exert their full power, and only surplus accumulations should be sacrificed.

This is a fight for the future of mankind, and future generations should bear their share of the burdens. And at that they will make no such sacrifices as the present generation will be called upon to make.

Food Container Shortage

In order to avoid serious delay and probable food loss during the approaching harvest season, growers and shippers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to estimate accurately their needs and place their orders for barrels, crates, hampers, baskets and other containers for food products at once. They should notify manufacturers to begin making deliveries immediately, or at least as soon as their crops are reasonably assured. Larger supplies of containers will be needed this season than usual. Since crops of most perishable products must be moved as soon as ready to harvest, serious financial loss to growers and shippers and failure to save needed crops may result unless orders for packages are placed promptly and shipments begun within the next few weeks.

The Department of Agriculture is in receipt of advice from widely separated parts of the United States that there may be a package shortage this season unless growers and shippers are able to anticipate their needs. It will be difficult for manufacturers to meet the emergency should abnormal demand for additional packages for perishable crops arise in the midst of the harvest season. At that time, it is pointed out, traffic on railroads will be heaviest and shipments may be much delayed when most needed. The responsibility of manufacturers to put forth every reasonable effort to help meet the situation should not be overlooked.

Henry Clews, the New York financier, speaks most encouragingly of the world events of the past week, calling attention to the fact that "registration day passed off successfully, and the total absence of disorder, as well as the patriotic manner in which the 10,000,000 young men responded to the call, was assurance of the fact that notwithstanding fears and agitation to the contrary the United States was, in fact and name a united country. From Europe the news was also more encouraging. The Allies are making steady progress; the submarine warfare shows signs of weakening, and disturbances in Russia seem less threatening than a few weeks ago. Reports concerning the Liberty Loan continue highly stimulating, and all indications point to its complete success in spite of the difficulties of raising such a vast sum before our people had been hurt or stung into very strenuous belligerency. All in all, the week's developments were of a stimulating nature, and were distinctly reflected in a more active and stronger stock market.

TRIAL OF POLICE OFFICERS OPENS

Judge Geiger of Milwaukee on Bench When Indianapolis Men Face Trial Today

SIX HAVE PLEADED GUILTY

Most Prominent in List Is Chief Perrott—Concerns 1914 Election Fraud

(By United Press.)

Lafayette, Ind., June 12.—Purdue Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—With Judge Ferdinand A. Geiger of the United States district court of Milwaukee presiding, the trial of Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott and other Indianapolis officials opened in federal court today. Judge Anderson declined to hear the case because he presided in the damage suit of Alexander Campbell, a negro, for $25,000 against Perrott and other police officials in which testimony was given which caused Anderson to give special instructions to the grand jury, resulting in the indictment of the police officials.

Six of the Indianapolis men indicted have pleaded guilty to the charges and may take the witness stand for the government. The men are charged with intimidating voters at the 1914 election. Statutes under which they were indicted differ from those on which Evansville and Frankfort men were indicted. The latter were accused of buying and selling votes.

Beside Chief Perrott, those who went on trial are: Police Sergeants Wayland E. Sanders, Mortimer C. Hulse; Capt. Roy Pope; Herman Adam, city scaler; Frank M. Johnson and Oscar Merrill, lieutenants of police. Dennis Bush, former street commissioner and five other minor political workers who have admitted their guilt, were also named in the indictment.

during the opening and closing of the polls the election inspector, in the presence of the rest of the board shall open the envelopes containing the absent voter's ballot and after comparing the signatures, if they are found correct, the ballot is to be deposited and the absent voter shall be recorded as having voted.

The vote of an absent voter may be challenged for cause and the election board has the power and authority to hear and determine the legality of such ballots the same as though the ballots were cast by the voter in person. Before the vote is cast the inspector shall notify the poll book holders and the challengers that he is about to deposit an absent voter's ballot.

 PERIOD OF LENIENCY PAST *****

Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—The period of leniency for those who failed to register on June 5 is now passed, according to a telegram received by state officials from the war department. From now on every effort will be made to run down slackers and prosecute them. It was also announced that the number of men the state will be called on to furnish for the army will be based on the estimate of the census bureau and not on the registration figures.

DREAM OF TUNNEL UNDER CHANNEL

By F. W. GETTY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, June 12.—One of the fondest dreams of England's engineers for centuries, a tunnel beneath the English Channel, will probably be realized after the war.

Sir Francis Fox has enabled the United Press to give an outline of how such a tunnel, which, burrowing 100 feet beneath the sea-floor, could disgorge express and freight trains between England and France, and remove forever the menace of the submarine, can be constructed.

To drive a double tunnel through the grey Cenomanian chalk, diverting it ingeniously at one point through the gault, is today a simple feat of engineering, Sir Francis declared. Revolving cutters, fixed in Greathead shields, will eat through the earth like butter and the debris can be constantly removed from the face by high-speed endless belts, discharging directly into wagons.

The Fox plan includes two tunnels, each eighteen feet in diameter, joined at intervals of 200 yards by cross tunnels. A complete system of ventilation is to be worked by electricity. Electric trains are to bring and take away the workmen.

In case such a tunnel should be seized by a hostile force, a water-lock, constructed to deal with such an emergency will enable the adjacent military authorities to flood it with water at an instant's notice. When the emergency is over the water can be pumped out by electric power.

Garden Space Occupied by Early Crops Can Again be Utilized Says H. J. Reed

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—Planting of navy beans between June 20 and July 1 on all garden space which up to that time, has been occupied by early garden crops, was advised today by H. J. Reed of Purdue university in a bulletin issued through the office of G. I. Christie, state food director.

This will permit the harvesting of two crops from the same land and also late planting of beans is to be preferred, the bulletin states, as it reduces to a considerable extent the danger of loss from rust that attacks the leaves.

Committee Meets in Chicago to See How Much Butter Fat Should be in Country Product

ALSO STANDARDS FOR MILK

Chicago, June 12.—Just how much butter fat and moisture should be in genuine country butter will be decided at the Hotel Sherman either today or tomorrow. The question will be decided by the Joint Committee on Definitions and Standards which has asked the public to call at the Hotel Sherman and express their views on the matter.

The "joint committee" consists of representatives of the U. S. Besides deciding the fate of butter the committee will also conduct hearings on tentative standards for milk and milk products.

News has been received here of the wedding of Miss Daisy Notley of Roswell, N. M., and Andrew Guffin, also of Roswell, who formerly lived

A wedding of unusual interest to the musical and church circles of Roswell occurred last night at the Guffin home, north of town, when Miss Daisy Notley became the bride of Andrew Guffin. The wedding of these two popular and talented people was a distinct surprise. Miss Notley has been a successful piano teacher in Roswell, and since her residence in the city the popular and admired pianist of the First Christian church. Mr. Guffin has been a prominent member of the First Christian church, active in choir and various church organizations. The wedding was the culmination of a quiet romance that began during the Brown-Garth meeting. There was about forty guests present, who came expecting to have a farewell social for the Guffin family, who were to leave the city shortly to make their home elsewhere. Mr. Guffin had invited the choir to the home for this social event, but not informing them of the real nature of the occasion. Following an evening of games and music, the minister, of the First Christian church, Rev. Alfred O. Kuhn, called Miss Notley and Mr. Guffin to the center of the room, and announced to the assembled guests that there was a surprise in store for them. Mr. Kuhn proceeded to read a marriage ceremony to the astonishment of the guests, who had been in ignorance of the proposed wedding. Before the guests could recover from their surprise the ceremony was ended. Congratulations were showered upon the happy couple, after which delicious refreshments of ice cream and heart shaped cakes were served. The bride looked very charming in a beautiful soft white gown.

Italy was apparently starting on another offensive in the Terinto. She has just concluded the first stage of one successful offensive in the Carso and Austria must keep great forces constantly massed there.

Revised Figures Issued by Provost Marshal Not up to Census Bureau Estimate

THOUSANDS OF SLACKERS

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 12.—Total registration for selective service will be approximately 9,250,000, according to revised figures given out today by the provost marshal general. This number is more than one million below the original census estimate.

While officials realize there are probably thousands of slackers they pointed out following the revision of the estimate that the number will be less than first expected.

Revision of the figures was made when the provost marshal general's office realized that in using the census figures officials did not take into account the fact that about 600,000 men of eligible age have already volunteered for service.

Another factor in the revision was the realization that the census estimate, made previous to the war, did not take into account that in the past three years immigration has practically stopped.

Senator Watson Requested to Address Candidates for Army Officers

Senator James E. Watson left for Indianapolis at eleven o'clock this morning with the expectation of speaking to the candidates at the officers training camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison tonight. For that reason Senator Watson expected to request that the time for his speech be changed to tonight.

and they did not understand why the government did not appropriate money for the Red Cross since it was so necessary to the army. He gave it as his personal opinion that the good and sufficient reason was that people did not become an intimate part of the organization and did not feel that they had done anything for their country simply by paying a war tax.

The war relief campaign is the greatest campaign for a relief fund in the history of the world, and it is the greatest movement of the kind in which Indiana has ever been asked to participate. Indiana is to be stormed from lake to river that people from city, town and farm may have opportunity to subscribe to the cause which is going to be of vital importance to Hoosier soldier boys who are sent to the battle front of Europe, or who may later have to defend American soil from the threatening invader. The whole force of the American nation is lining up behind the Red Cross, and Indiana people are expected to rally.

The management of the campaign is in the hands of A. F. Bentley state director of the Red Cross, with an organized force of workers in each congressional district where a secretary is directing the county movements. S. P. Withrow of Cincinnati has been secured as campaign leader in the field. A special campaign organization exists in the city of Indianapolis where an executive committee headed by William Fortune with J. W. Lilly and Frank D. Stalnaker among the members in charge. H. W. Eldridge of Allentown, Pa., is the campaign leader for Indianapolis. All over the United States the most active men are engaged in this same campaign. New York city, for example, Mayor Mitchell and J. P. Morgan are both on the lists of team captains who will work every day, securing subscription it as they have the Liberty bond and the Y. M. C. A. war work movements.

The leaders in this Red Cross cause say that the people of Indiana must act and give promptly if the state is to take a foremost position in the nation-wide campaign for funds. But a more important reason for promptness is that America is in a desperate position and that the Red Cross is one of its mightiest agencies in the critical time. The great fund must be in hand for the protection and comfort of the American armies which are already starting for the blood-soaked regions of Europe. The Red Cross fund is to be used to provide war unit hospitals which will follow the American armies wherever they go. Ambulance companies, a branch of the hospital work as important as the hospitals themselves, are also to be provided out of the fund. Tuberculosis is sweeping the armies of Europe because inadequate defense against the white plague was not provided in the beginning. Part of the Red Cross fund is to go for safeguarding the American soldiers against the ravage of this and other diseases which are to be dreaded as enemy bullets.

America is going into the war to break the deadlock which now seems to exist along the east and west fronts of Europe. Americans must win the war now on European soil, or it may have to be fought to the finish on our own soil. Vast as the $100,000,000 Red Cross fund may seem, it is less than two days cost of the war as it is now being fought abroad and as it may cost should it be transferred to our own land.

So Americans are being appealed to to support their own interests in every possible way during this critical period—to prepare for war, by giving up their sons, and to stand behind the youth of the country as it goes forth to fight by entreaching the Red Cross as the one mighty relief force ready for all emergencies behind the battle lines.

There is no limit to the amount which a Hoosier may give to the Red Cross fund, but the gifts must be generous if the state is to reach its apportionment of $1,500,000. Although the actual canvas for funds does not start until July 18, several gifts of $1,000,000 each have been pledged in New York and large sums are also pledged by Chicago citizens.

Every county in Indiana now has a fully organized chapter of the Red Cross and forces of workers are ready to canvass for subscriptions, and in every county too the state committee urges that the appeal for funds be promptly responded to.

Gardeners too often waste the producing power of the rich, well tilled soil of cold frames after early started crops have been removed and set in the garden, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

It should be recognized, the specialists point out, that most of the garden crops of early spring which ordinarily cannot be grown to good advantage in the open after dry hot weather sets in, can be grown satisfactorily at such a time in cold frames. Among such vegetables are lettuce, radishes and early beets. All these plants thrive best under cool, fairly moist conditions. The sides of the cold frames furnish a partial shade and a good protection from drying winds and so help to simulate conditions found in the spring in the open. If it is desired,

Lettuce and radish seed may be planted together in the frames. The radishes will mature first and will be out of the way by the time the space is needed for lettuce. If planted thick, the surplus lettuce should be removed when the plants are a few inches high. If spaced an inch or so the surplus plants need not be removed until they are large enough to be eaten. The lettuce plants which are to be allowed to head should be left about 6 inches apart.

Beets may be planted between the rows of lettuce after the latter is well along, and permitted to grow after the lettuce has been harvested. By planting these crops successively cold frames may be put to intensive use throughout the growing season.

It is a well known fact that Piles, Hemorrhoids and troubles of that kind, as a rule, have their origin in constipation. Look back to the time you first noticed the disagreeable, painful feeling that pile sufferers know only too well. The bowels were constipated. Cathartics were used almost incessantly.

The origin of constipation can be traced to indigestion in almost every instance. The food, instead of digesting properly, passes out of the stomach in an undigested, non-assimilative condition. In this form it enters the bowels, clogs them and constipates.

A systematic digestion of your food will prevent constipation. Many take cathartics for this trouble, when it would be far better to go to the seat of the trouble, the stomach. Pepsinco, the perfect digestant, is used by thousands and has proven a boon to hundreds of sufferers of constipation, piles and hemorrhoids, because it has been demonstrated to be the only logical method of regulating the bowels.

Pepsinco acts upon the food as it enters the stomach, preparing it for assimilation quickly and surely. It is a well known fact that well digested food will never constipate. It is equally well known that undigested food does constipate, therefore, the logical method of curing constipation is the perfect digestion of the food as it enters the stomach.

If you have Piles; if you have Hemorrhoids; we would suggest that you go at once to the drug store and get a small package of Pepsinco, which will regulate your bowels and cure your piles and hemorrhoids. All druggists carry Pepsinco. It is inexpensive and easy to take.

COMPROMISE CASE FOR COMPENSATION

The case of Claude Levi against the Peters Construction company for compensation insurance, was compromised this morning before the trial of the case started before Charles R. Hughes, a member of the state industrial board. The hearing was set for Rushville today and Mr. Hughes was here ready for the trial when an agreement was reached.

Levi was hit on the head by a pile driver on January 30, 1917 while working for the Peters company on a bridge. He claimed disability for a period of thirty days and alleged his average wage earning was $20 a week. It is understood that he received about $15 in the settlement. The member of the industrial board went from here to Connersville where two cases were to be tried.
